

July 2016

Economics

The Canadian firm Centerra Gold reported that Kyrgyz authorities had launched new legal proceedings against its subsidiary company, Kumtor Gold Company.

Afghanistan and India inaugurated the multi-million dollar Afghan-India Friendship Dam in western Afghanistan. The new dam will provide power and irrigation to a large number of Afghans.

Members of the Cooperation Council of Turkic Speaking States, including Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Azerbaijan and Turkey, announced that they would sign protocols to apply common customs procedures and standards.

Kazakhstan's energy ministry announced that it had finally agreed on production-sharing details with the other shareholders of the Kashagan oil field. The agreement was many years in the making.

Officials from Kazakhstan and China met on the sidelines of the SCO summit to discuss further economic, investment, fuel and energy, transit and transportation cooperation.

A London-based anti-corruption group warned that the illegal mining of the rare lapis lazuli stone was fuelling the rise of the Taliban in the Afghan province of Badakhshan.

The European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD) and the Beijing-based Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank (AIIB) agreed to jointly invest US$55 million to upgrade an important section of the Dushanbe-Uzbekistan motorway.

The Afghan government was accused of indirectly funding the Taliban by buying marble from companies in Helmand province that pay taxes and extraction fees to the group.

Kazakh lawmakers vetoed the controversial land law that had caused nationwide protests in recent months.

Politics

Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) leaders met for a two-day summit in Tashkent to discuss regional security, including the situation in Afghanistan.

Tajik cabinet members must now swear an oath of allegiance to the country's president Emomali Rahmon before taking office.

Amnesty International warned that allegations of torture and ill treatment by Kazakh prison authorities go "largely unchecked and unpunished."

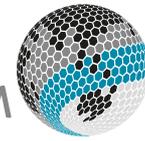

The Presidents of Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan met on the sidelines of the SCO summit to discuss expanding bilateral cooperation.

Kazakhstan's former sports minister Talghat Ermegyaev was found guilty of taking bribes during his tenure as chairman of the Astana Expo-2017 Joint Stock Company. He was sentenced to 14-years in jail.

A Kazakh court sentenced Murat Taqaumov to nine months' jail for being a member of the banned Tablighi Jamaat group.

Follow us on Twitter: @mesf\_deakin

Kyrgyz lawmakers approved a bill that bans foreign entities from owning or establishing media outlets. Civil rights activists protested the bill in front of the parliament.

A Kyrgyz opposition politician accused of sedition was transferred from house arrest to a detention centre.

Afghan lawmakers approved President Ashraf Ghani's nominees for the country's Defence and Intelligence portfolios. Abdullah Habibi will take up the position as Defence Minister, while Mohammad Masoom Stanekzai will become the chief of Afghanistan's National Directorate of Security.

Security

The Tajik President met with the commander of United States Central Command General Joseph Votel in Dushanbe to discuss security cooperation along the Tajik-Afghan border.

The Kyrgyz State Committee for National Security arrested two nationals accused of attempting to join ISIS.

A court in Kyrgyzstan sentenced Alibek Tilek-Uulu to life in prison for stabbing a well-known Kyrgyz theologian last November.

Kyrgyz police reported that 4,000 residents have been identified as "adherents of extremists views."

German authorities arrested a Tajik man accused of joining ISIS in Syria.

A Tajik court sentenced six men to jail after finding them guilty of practicing Salafism.

A Tajik court found several associates of the late Deputy Defense Minister Abduhalim Nazarzoda guilty of attempting to seize power.

The Kazakh Ministry of Defence announced that it had signed contracts with German, Turkish and Spanish firms in order to expand its naval presence in the Caspian Sea.

Militants attacked a military facility and two gun stores in the Kazakh city of Aqtobe on June 5. Kazakh authorities declared that the attack was organised by Islamists from abroad.

Kyrgyz Authorities arrested a Kyrgyz national accused of fighting alongside ISIS in Syria. The man stands accused of returning to Kyrgyzstan with the intention of conducting terrorist attacks.

Two former leaders of the banned Islamic Renaissance Party were sentenced to life in prison by a Tajik court.

Afghan officials reported heavy casualties in the eastern province of Nangarhar after a battle between government security forces and ISIS militants on June 26.

The Taliban freed 23 hostages in Helmand province following negotiations with a tribal elder.

14 Nepalese security employees of the Canadian embassy in Kabul were killed during a Taliban suicide attack.

The former Afghan President Hamid Karzai declared that the US's decision to kill the Taliban leader Mullah Akhtar Mansur had undermined the Afghan government-Taliban peace process.

US journalist David Gilkey and his Afghan translator Zabihullah Tamanna were killed in an attack in southern Afghanistan.

The Taliban killed 12 members of the Afghan security forces who had been captured in ambushes in Ghazni province in the country's east.

At least one Afghan soldier was killed and six were wounded in border clashes between Afghan and Pakistani soldiers in the Khyber Pass on June 13.

President Obama granted further authority to US commanders supporting Afghan troops in the fight against the Taliban in Afghanistan.

