

Iraqi Women's Participation in Peacebuilding Across Local, National and Global Contexts

Dr Yasmin Chilmeran
(Swedish Institute of International Affairs)

In this seminar, Dr Yasmin Chilmeran of the Swedish Institute of International Affairs will share an early analysis of case studies of peacebuilding programmes from a larger post-doc project, which explores women's participation in peacebuilding across different security and spatial contexts in Iraq. This seminar will also delve into theoretical frameworks that highlight space, violence and hierarchy as a way to understand these programmes and women's roles within them.
